

The United States Official Investigation of baking powders, made under authority of Congress by the Chemical Division of the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., recently completed, shows the Royal Baking Powder to be a cream of tarter powder of the highest quality, pure and wholesome, and superior to all others in strength, leavening power, and general usefulness. a29.

It is said that four years after the fight at Chickamauga the battlefield shown like bright moonlight, even on the darkest nights. The light came from the phosphorescent exhalations of the decaying bones of the piled-up dead.

A Fresno wine grower has introduced a brand of wine to the Eastern market called "Light Salvation Claret." The editor of the APPEAL can endorse this drink as the real stuff. He tasted some three months ago—about half a wine glass, and didn't know his own name for six hours.

It is claimed that the Prince of Wales baited a trap with a woman and caught his son-in-law. This is an improbable story. The Prince as a man of the world, has been in a position to know just how tempting a bait a woman is and would hardly take so unfair an advantage of another man as to play an underhanded and "dead sure" game against him.

The Free Lance publishes nearly a column of poetry about Jack Furlong's saloon, and also prints a letter he writes to the editor of the Free Lance. Jack writes to the Free Lance that he has responded freely to church subscriptions, put up for church sociables, and also helped the W. C. T. U. gatherings by spending his money there. The poem and Furlong's letter make interesting reading, and both have good points which commend themselves to the reader. The Free Lance is making it very lively all round of late, and getting considerable healthy advertising patronage.

PROF. DEVOL OUT.—The Board of Regents of the University have decided to dispense with Prof. Devol at the end of the term. They have more Professors than money, and think they can best serve the interests of the Agricultural Station by saving what money they have for labor.

THE KEMLER EXECUTION.

How the Machine Disappointed the Officials.

NEW YORK, May 7th.—Last evening the writ of habeas corpus in the Kemler case was returned in Judge Hoffman's court, and the Sheriff had orders to proceed with the execution at once.

Kemler was notified at 7:30 that he must prepare to die, and Father Ryan was sent for. He was left with his spiritual adviser for an hour, and then announced that he was ready.

He sat down in the chair without the slightest appearance of nervousness, and placed the electric cap over his own head.

The sudden return of the writ of habeas corpus caught the papers napping, and only the reporters of the World and Sun were present when Kemler sat down in the chair.

Prof. Donaldson arranged the apparatus, and at 10:15 announced that everything was ready.

The force of the current was reckoned at 2000 volts. Just as the announcement was made, Thomas Edson stepped into the room and protested against the strength of the current, saying that it would burn the condemned man's flesh. He considered 800 volts ample enough to kill any living being. The current was not reduced, however.

It 10:25 the signal was given and the Sheriff turned the lever.

It appears that he turned it the wrong way—to the negative instead of the positive pole, and the result was that the reporters of the World and Sun were prostrated on the floor, the Sheriff and his deputies were knocked senseless, Thomas Edison fainted with the shock.

The execution chair turned a back somersault and threw Kemler clear out of the window into the street.

As soon as he hit the sidewalk he set out on a dead run and disappeared. He has not since been seen, and the authorities talk of issuing another writ of habeas corpus, returnable on the 10th.

The best lawyers of the city hold his life cannot be twice jeopardized, and there is a general feeling that the old rope is the best thing for executions.

[By grapevine telegraph to the APPEAL.]

DESERVING OF RECOGNITION.—General P. E. Conner will be a candidate for the Liberal nomination for the Recordership of Salt Lake county. If anybody is deserving of substantial recognition for services rendered to the Gentile cause during the dark days of Utah, it is the above named veteran soldier and commander, who first taught the Church government to respect the Federal power and the lives and property of those not in sympathy with their religious views. He generalized the best Indian fight ever made on this continent, and by a single battle put a stop to all redskin monkeying with the scalps and stock of the white settlers of the Territory.

RENO WILL CELEBRATE.—At a meeting of citizens in Reno Saturday night, it was decided to celebrate the Fourth of July. Hon. Thos. Fitch was chosen as Orator, Judge W. Webster President of the Day, J. L. Flint Grand Marshal, and R. H. Lindsay Reader of the Declaration of Independence.

Elko Independent: The dead cattle which are lying on the outskirts of town are all being buried. About thirty-five head have been counted, which will be disposed of.

GOOD FEED.—The Silver State says the feed is better in the foothills at the present time than it has been for years. There is considerable grass too among the sagebrush in the valleys. The situation is exactly the reverse of what it was a year ago. Then there was plenty of stock but very little feed, now there is plenty of feed but very little stock.

Ladies who appreciate neat and stylish work in the millinery line, will do well to call on Mrs. Maude Stine, Ormsby House blk. m71w

JUDGE SABIN'S ILLNESS.—The Daily Report has the following:

Judge Sabin of the United States Circuit Court, who came to this city to preside over the Circuit Court in the absence of Judge Sawyer, is lying dangerously ill in the Palace Hotel. He was attacked by inflammatory rheumatism about two weeks ago and suffered intensely. Dr. Tyrrell succeeded in relieving the sufferer. It was then expected that the patient would recuperate as he always has after such attacks, but instead, he sank into a low state, from which he has been unable to rally. His physician became alarmed and called in another doctor. Neither could account for the Judge's condition, and Dr. Tyrrell notified his friends that if they desired to call in any other physician he would be glad. This morning Judge Sabin was entirely unconscious, and, as a friend who called on him expressed it, "hovering between life and death." The Judge is unmarried and has a sister living in Oakland. Since his illness Judge Hoffman has opened and adjourned the Circuit Court from day to day.

GLENDALE FLOODED.—The immense volume of water in the Truckee, the like of which has not been known for years, has caused the water to overflow the banks at Glendale, four miles below Reno, and covered many of the best ranches with water to a considerable depth, doing great damage. The water reached the Kitchen in Henry Whistler's house and he was compelled to move his family to a neighbor's. One or two others are greatly alarmed lest they may be forced to leave their homes. The water has submerged the farms of Joen Kleppe, F. M. Thompson, A. J. Clark, Ross Jones, Dan O'Connor's old place, Mrs. Blasdel, and has partially covered C. Derby, Miss Crocker, and Geo. Douglas. It is pretty close to these of R. H. Kinney, and O. C. Ross. In all between 3,000 and 4,000 acres of land have been flooded, and if the river keeps up its lick the loss to growing crops will amount to thousands of dollars.

SAID PASHA.—"Said Pasha," a comic opera, which deals in harms, lovers, lost daughters, etc., and has the typical Oriental flavor about it, will receive its first production at the Marquam Grand Opera House on Tuesday evening next. It is said to be from beginning to end a bewildering succession of gorgeous colors, wonderful pictures, merry marches, brilliant costumes, bright, tripping music, good burlesque and an unlimited amount of good-natured fun. Scott Marble one of the best known authors in America, wrote the libretto, and it has proven a distinct success.—Boston Times.

HOMER THAXTER'S MEDAL.—Homer Thaxter's gold medal for winning the bicycle race at the last Fair, was received yesterday. It is appropriately engraved, and has a very neat appearance. The work was done in San Francisco, but the APPEAL is of the opinion that it could have been done still better at Fredrick's jewelry establishment in Virginia City, where a specialty is made of such work. The Fair managers ought to make it a point to see that home industry is patronized and developed as much as possible. That's what fairs are for.

Suspicious Knowledge.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE APPEAL:—I would like to inquire if the patrons of the Carson Opera House like to be treated to the spectacle of women of the town sitting in private boxes in full view of the audience. It is a thing which I think ought to be stopped in the interest of morality.

Yours,

A MAN OF FAMILY.
